

DETAILS AND RULES

Categories:

Adults/Teens (ages 15 & up; individual or group) • Family (child and adult together; can be more than 1 child and/or 1 adult) • Younger Kids (ages 8 & younger with little or no adult help; can be more than 1 child) • Older Kids (ages 9 –14 with little or no adult help; can be more than 1 child)

Rules:

- Entries must be on a base no more than 20" x 20" in order to fit on the shelves. The base must be solid for easy transport as needed by library staff.
- Entries do not necessarily need to be houses. Unique structures are encouraged.
- Entries should be made entirely of edible materials (Graham crackers allowed in all age categories).
Pre-made, edible gingerbread house kits are allowed.
- Entries must be submitted with a completed Entry Form. No early Entry Forms please.
- Entries will be accepted on Wed, Dec. 1 or Thurs, Dec. 2 between 9:30 am and 7:45pm.
- Houses may be picked up between Saturday, Dec. 18 and Thursday, Dec. 23.
- Houses left after this date will be disposed of.

Awards:

New this year: Community members will select the winners in each of the categories.
• Up to three places will be awarded in each category. • Community members may vote once for each category either in person or online. • Each place winner will receive a ribbon and bragging rights. • Special individual "Creativity Awards" will be awarded to each entry.
